

Can we replay sessions after the conference?

- Yes, sessions will be available for streaming for one month after the conference.

Can the chair ask a question?

- yes, especially if other questions are not available from the Q&A.

Is the "session highlights" form the same as the required summary? What is the required length?

- Yes, it is the same. Keep it short and only mention the "highlights" of the session.

Can you login on 2 computers instead of using 2 screens?

- Unfortunately, this is not possible. There will be an automatic logout from one of the devices.

Can you see the Q&A screen at the same time as seeing the presentation or is it in another window?

- It is another tab in the browser, but you can adjust and place both visible in the screen.

What is the procedure if a session chair/co-chair disconnects?

- The other chair will take care of the session.

After the session, when should I submit the highlights?

- Within the same day, but the sooner the better.

Do you have a preferred method to signal the speakers that they have 2 or 1 minute of time left?

- 1. Internal chat, 2. Use your microphone.

How can we access the broadcasting platform? Do I receive a link? and when?

- On the EU PVSEC website in the USER AREA you will find a link/button to access the online event platform. You will also find links to the specific session you chair to enter the broadcast.

When will we know who the other chairperson is, in order to organise ourselves?

- You can find the up to date programme at: https://www.eupvsec-planner.com/create_agenda.html

You recommended to close the email client but keep the mobile phone close (and silent). Does that mean you will ask for mobile numbers or do you expect us to receive emails on the phone?

- It is not mandatory to provide the mobile phone number, but it would be helpful if you provide it to us via your user area.
